

PBK Mentoring Program

Student Progress Sheet

Foreign Language

At least 2nd year of college foreign language course (through level 4), may include AP credit; or proficiency test from Pitt language/linguistics department; or 4 years of advanced secondary school instruction in one foreign language.

Natural Sciences (15 credits)

Minimum of:
 3 credits of math beyond algebra and trigonometry
 6 credits of science (B/C/P) taken as two term sequence
 6 credits of any natural science from other department

Humanities (15 credits)

Minimum of 8 credits in one department and 3 credits in two other departments.

Social Sciences (15 credits)

Minimum of 8 credits in one department and 3 credits in two other departments.

Liberal Arts Courses (60 credits)

Liberal arts courses from the University of Pittsburgh, with letter grades.

Phi Beta Kappa
Xi Chapter of Pennsylvania
University of Pittsburgh

Most courses under these Divisions will be accepted for use as PBK requirements. However, many departments offer courses that are formally cross-listed with another department in another Division (for example: Religious Studies and History). Courses can be used only once, but in any of the cross-listed divisions.

Humanities

- Classics
- Communications
- East Asian Languages and Literatures
- English
- Film Studies
- French and Italian Languages and Literatures
- Germanic Languages and Literatures
- Hispanic Languages and Literatures
- History of Art and Architecture
- History and Philosophy of Science
- Linguistics
- Music
- Philosophy
- Religious Studies
- Slavic Language and Literatures
- Theater Arts

Natural Sciences

- Physics and Astronomy
- Biological Sciences
- Chemistry
- Math
- Geology and Planetary Science
- Neuroscience
- Psychology
- Statistics

Social Sciences

- Africana Studies
- Anthropology
- Economics
- History
- Political Science
- Sociology
- Urban Studies
- Gender Studies

Liberal Arts*:

Courses from professional schools, applied studio arts, applied music, theater performance, journalism, military science, physical education, and career developments courses do not count toward meeting the Phi Beta Kappa academic requirement.

If you have any questions regarding your eligibility requirements, please feel free to contact any of the PBK Officers or the Selection Committee Members.

Selection Committee Members:

Professor Michael West mikewest@pitt.edu

Professor Edwin Floyd edfloyd@pitt.edu

Professor Rob Coalson coalson@pitt.edu